HIGH SCHOOL VISITS TO WELLINGTON

Wellington is the perfect place for your next commerce field trip. Our vibrant capital city is at the intersection between creative culture, business, and government, and will provide an eye-opening experience for students.

While visiting Wellington School of Business and Government, students will hear a taster lecture from one of our academic staff members, our student recruitment team will share an overview of the university student experience, and an external speaker will offer insights into the business community and a career in business.
