Library Strategy Map Priorities 2024

The Library's strategy map is framed within the context of Te Herenga Waka-Victoria University of Wellington's Strategic Plan and commitment to Te Tiriti o Waitangi Statute principles.

The Library provides world class services and resources supporting quality learning, teaching and research, including:

- Developing and maintaining evidence-based collections that are easily accessible and discoverable
- Providing advice and guidance that supports good management of information and records, that is format neutral
- Copyright advice, guidance and reporting
- Proactively engaging with academics and students to contribute to learning success
- Contributing to enhancing reach, visibility and engagement of University research outputs
- Actively managing digital and physical Library environments to enrich the student experience

Our core ethical values are respect, responsibility, fairness, integrity, and empathy

With, and as, tangata whenua, we realise the values under Mai i te Iho ki te Pae:

Whai mātauranga

We provide expertise and services to support our researchers

Akoranga

We provide expertise and services to support learning and teaching

Whanaungatanga

Collectively we grow meaningful and long-lasting relationships

Kaitiakitanga

We work with our community partners to ensure sustainable access to content and collections

Rangatiratanga

We value leadership at all levels

Manaakitanga

We are open and generous and foster an environment for inclusiveness and growth

Developing Library collections

- Ensure our collections are aligned with the University's teaching and research needs
- Monitor and interpret publishing trends to inform collection development and evaluation decisions
- Improve discoverability of, and access to, our collections
- Enhance engagement with our heritage collections

Engaging with stakeholders

- Embed UX principles and methodologies to understand the needs of our stakeholders
- Review and redevelop the website
- Empower and support the academic success of Māori students, staff, and researchers through Te Rautaki Māori initiatives
- Advise and guide the University on copyright, information and records management governance and practice

Our people and how we work

We cultivate and champion life-long learning by enhancing our knowledge and capabilities, while continually improving the way we work

Supporting student success

- Embed the new frontline services model
- Develop a vision for library spaces
- Develop and integrate library online services at the point of need

Enhancing research visibility, reach and engagement

- Lead developments in open access initiatives and review the Open Access Policy
- Contribute to University wide initiatives on strategic publishing
- Explore options for better supporting non-textual research outputs to identify a workable solution
