Expressions of Interest – 2025 Trimester 1 Tutor

We invite you to submit an expression of interest for tutoring in the School of Health. Our courses offer a multidisciplinary perspective of health and wellbeing in Aotearoa with a strong commitment to Te Tiriti ō Waitangi in practice, health equity, and social justice. We welcome students from other disciplines to apply, particularly those who have a background in Mātauranga Māori, and/or understand Pacific worldviews. You can see more about the courses on offer <https://www.wgtn.ac.nz/study/programmes-courses/courses>

About the role:

Tutors facilitate undergraduate tutorials, mark assessments and respond to student questions by email. Tutorials are 50 minutes (weekly) or 100 minutes (fortnightly) in duration. Tutors may be allocated more than one tutorial class. The first tutorials begin in the second week of the tri and run through to the last week. There may also be marking during the mid-trimester break and the exam period. In addition to the class and marking time, Tutors will spend 1.5 hours a week on preparation. .

About you:

An excellent tutor will be able to

- Relate well to undergraduate students and teaching staff.
- Have strong time management skills.
- Demonstrate good academic practice
- If you do not have previous tutor experience but are keen to learn and be a part of a supportive team, please put in your application.

To apply, please fill out our application form and forward a copy of your CV and a cover letter to soh@vuw.ac.nz

Applications close on 13 January 2025

If after having a look through the application form you have questions about any of these roles, please email soh@vuw.ac.nz

Successful tutors/markers will

- Be employed between 24 Feb and 21 June 2025 Hours will be negotiated individually.
- Be paid approximately $27.90 - $30.90/hour depending on previous experience. This amount is exclusive of ACC and holiday pay and may change slightly in accordance with the renegotiation of the tutor's collective agreement.
- Submit timesheets based on the number of hours worked each week.

We look forward to receiving your application.
