The Trans-Pacific Partnership Agreement – what lies ahead?

Listen to an expert panel discussion on aspects of trade, labour, the Treaty of Waitangi, intellectual property and investment

There has been much discussion about both the merits and disadvantages of the Trans-Pacific Partnership Agreement (TPPA). Experts from the Law Faculty will publicly discuss the facts and their views to further inform the dialogue.

- International trade and international economic law expert Meredith Kolsky Lewis, the ratification process and prospects
- Employment and labour law specialist Gordon Anderson, the labour chapter
- Treaty of Waitangi and Māori law specialist Carwyn Jones, Treaty of Waitangi issues
- Intellectual property and international trade expert Susy Frankel, intellectual property and its relationship with investment
